1. The Communist Party of Indochina has set up the Thanh Dang¹ Committee, directed by Truong Chinh, in order to investigate the backgrounds of party members and facilitate a purge.
2. A month ago the Democratic Republic of Vietnam (DRV) rid itself of all non-Communist Administration employees by a method termed "voluntary resignation," whereby all those opposed to the Communist regime were offered an opportunity to resign. However, so many employees left their positions that the resultant shortage has forced the DRV administration to call the technical can-bo back to their assignments.

1. Comment. Thanh Dang translates as "restore order within the party."
